so many fake sites. this is the first one which worked! Many thanks

Reading Assignment:
Ch. 7 Amsco. If you do not have the Amsco text, use chapter 11 of American: People and/or online resources such as the website, podcast, crash course video, chapter outline, Hippocampus, etc.

Purpose:
This guide is not only a place to record notes as you read, but also to provide a place and structure for reflection and analysis using your unique thinking skills with new knowledge gained from the reading. This guide, if completed to the end of the Beginning of Period by the due date, can be used on the corresponding quiz as well as earn up to 10 bonus points. In addition, completed guides provide the student with the ability to correct a quiz for 5 points back. The benefits of such activities, however, go far beyond quiz help and bonus points. Mastery of the course and AP exam result all who choose to process the information as they read/write. This is an optional assignment. So...young Jedi...what is your choice? Do? Or do not? There is no try.

Directions:

1. Pre-Read: Find the purpose/questions within this guide before you read the chapter.
2. Skim: Flip through the chapter and note titles and subtitles. Look at images and read captions. Get a feel for the content you are about to read.
3. Read/Analyze: Read the chapter. If you have your own copy of Amsco, highlight key events and people as you read. Remember, the goal is not to "fill" for a specific answer to reading guide questions, but to consider questions in order to critically understand what you read.
4. Write: Write (do not type) your notes and analysis in the spaces provided. Complete in INK.

Exit Concepts FOR PERIOD:
Main Idea: The new republic struggled to define and extend democratic ideals in the face of rapid economic, territorial, and demographic changes.
Key Concept 4.1: The United States developed the world's first modern mass democracy and celebrated a new national culture, while Americans sought to define the nation's democratic ideals and to reform its institutions to match them.
Key Concept 4.2: Developments in technology, agriculture, and commerce precipitated profound changes in U.S. settlement patterns, regional identities, gender and family relations, political power, and distribution of consumer goods.
